

House Resolution No. 384

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished himself as a leader of his community; and

Whereas, Ken Clardy, an esteemed resident of Marshfield, Missouri, has been named Marshfieldian of the Year; and

Whereas, Ken Clardy has worked to serve and protect the citizenry of Marshfield during his long and illustrious tenure with the Marshfield Police Department, of which he is Chief; and

Whereas, Ken Clardy has positively influenced the lives of numerous individuals during his professional career and is most proud of the impact he has had on area youth; and

Whereas, for many years, Ken Clardy allowed his children and their friends to gather at his home and provided them with a safe, drug-free environment where they could hang out and spend time together without getting into trouble; and

Whereas, these Friday night parties quickly grew into an everyday occurrence where kids could come to talk, spend the night, or grab a bite to eat; and

Whereas, Ken Clardy has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of a wonderful family whose members include his devoted wife of thirty-two years, Debbie Clardy; his four children and their spouses, Manda and Travis Hill, Rachel and Andy Myers, Sarah and Jason Marlin, and Robert Clardy; his four grandchildren, Callie, Carter, Bria, and Jackson; his parents, Elvis and Clevie Clardy; and his parents-in-law, Jack and Betty Cox:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Ken Clardy at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Marshfieldian of the Year, Police Chief Ken Clardy.
